

When YOU Grow Up!

What do you want to be when you grow up? Whether it's a rodeo clown, a pickle inspector, or even a gorilla masseuse, first thing's first —you'll need your own business cards!

Using the template below, fill in the appropriate details, and decorate your card with crayons and markers. For even sturdier cards, use a glue stick to paste the paper onto card stock. Then, cut along the dotted lines. Once you've put on the finishing touches, hand your business cards out to all of your friends and family. Imagine the possibilities!
