Create and Share Your Own Story

Christmas is an inspiring time filled with faith in the unseen. Virginia is inspired to write a letter to the newspaper to determine once and for all if Santa Claus exists. Like Virginia, you can practice your writing skills with the word lib below.

Read the passage and fill in each blank with your own word to create a funny, surprising, or just plain silly story that can be shared with your friends. Once you've filled in all of the blanks, read the real passage from Yes, Virginia (pp. 6–7).

Virginia loved _____ .
NOUN

She loved the _____ .
NOUN

She loved the _____ .
NOUN

But most of all, she loved _____ .
NOUN

She could hardly wait for _____ , when she would

_____ Santa a plate of _____ and lie awake

for the sound of _____ bells.
NOUN

This year, she had even _____ her very own _____ book.

Virginia's Christmas Cookies

WRITTEN BY CHRIS PLEHAL
ILLUSTRATED BY JAMES BERNARDIN

Ingredients

- 3/4 cup butter, softened
- 1 cup sugar
- 2 eggs
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
- 2 1/2 cups all-purpose flour
- 1 teaspoon baking powder
- 1 teaspoon salt
- Red and green sprinkles and colored sugar for decorating

Directions

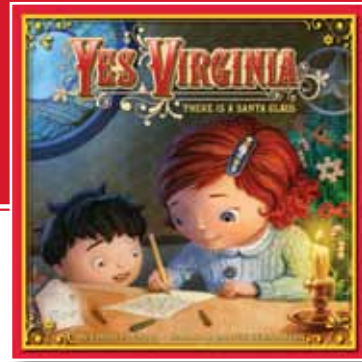

1. You will need an adult's help to make these cookies.
2. In a medium-sized bowl, mix together the flour, baking powder, and salt.
3. In a large bowl, cream the butter and sugar, then add the eggs, one at a time, followed by the vanilla.
4. Beat until light and fluffy.
5. Gradually add the flour mixture, using a wooden spoon or rubber spatula, to the wet mixture and combine until the dough becomes thicker.
6. Chill the dough for at least 2 hours. After the dough has chilled, roll out small amounts of dough on a floured board until 1/8" thick.
7. Dip cookie cutters into flour to prevent sticking. Cut dough into shapes.
8. Bake at 350°F for 6–8 minutes or until edges are light golden brown. Remove cookies from baking sheets, decorate with sprinkles and colored sugar, and cool on wire racks.
